Grand Summer Auction – July 4–6, 2025 at Automobilia Ladenburg

2,723 historic automobilia lots – with legendary driver estates and rare racing memorabilia

Ladenburg, June 2025 – From July 4 to 6, 2025, Automobilia Ladenburg invites collectors and enthusiasts to its Grand Summer Auction. With 2,723 individual lots, it marks one of the most extensive sales in the company's history.

The event is divided into two parts:

- A two-day live auction in Ladenburg with 2,108 lots (July 4 & 5)
- A follow-up online auction with 615 additional lots, ending on July 6

Racing Legends & Iconic Memorabilia

One of the auction's main attractions is the comprehensive estates of several major motorsport personalities:

- Toni Ulmen – 1950 German Champion (Veritas RS)
- Herbert Linge – Porsche test driver and Nürburgring veteran
- Dieter Schmid – Porsche privateer and racer
- Sepp Greger – iconic Bavarian hill climb driver
- And exclusively in the online auction: the estate of Renzo Setti, Ferrari Gestione Sportiva (Racing Department) engineer

Two outstanding items stand out:

- ❑ The original winner's trophy from Steve McQueen – 12 Hours of Sebring 1970, Porsche 908
- ❑ The original chassis plate from Gilles Villeneuve's crashed Ferrari 126C2 (Zolder, 1982) – included in the Renzo Setti estate (online)

What to expect

- Personal racing documents & original racewear
  - Factory photos, archive material, driver licenses
